Dynamic range of sports modes to meet your dynamic needs

With features ranging from sleep monitoring to sports tracking, Xiaomi Smart Band 7 Pro offers over 110 sports modes to fulfill user tracking needs. For runners in particular, the on-wrist running coach feature offers 10 pre-planned running courses at different levels, such as run/walk combos for beginners or fat burn/endorance-focused training, and even interval training specifically for strengthening heart/lung health – all to fulfill performance needs. New to Xiaomi Smart Band 7 Pro is a built-in GNSS system, enabling faster positioning and more accurate route tracking, making it the perfect gear for all on-the-go sports enthusiasts.

All-in-one companion that goes with you, anytime, anywhere

Rated with 5ATM water resistance and a battery life of up to 12-days¹, this fashionable yet featherweight gadget is packed with handy features in addition to its sports-centric functions, such as cycles logging, events tracking, alarms, stopwatch, and even acts as a camera shutter remote control. This wearable is the perfect all-round general well-being companion providing every white-collar professional or aspiring athlete with a tech-savvy accessory that complements both their work & sporting lifestyle.

Fresh design with the biggest-ever display on a Xiaomi Smart Band

Equipped with a large rectangular 1.64" high-resolution AMOLED display, Xiaomi Smart Band 7 Pro offers users an increased viewing area, 84% larger than that of Xiaomi Smart Band 6. With this, users can view more detail for notifications and messages in one glance. This device's enhanced display features auto-brightness function, providing users with a more convenient viewing experience for day-to-day use.

Xiaomi Smart Band 7 Pro comes with over 150 in-app watch faces and a host of different strap colors in a pleasing tactile form. This latest smart band with the all-new aesthetic is destined to be a wardrobe 'must-have' for all aspiring fashion enthusiasts and business elites with the aesthetic flexibility to match any look, whether a formal or casual occasion.
